

"THROW AWAY MY BACK ISSUES?.. ..NEVER!"

According to a recent survey, 92% of MICROCOMPUTING's readers keep their back issues.

Why is that?

We can think of two possibilities.

- 1) They think a complete edition of MICROCOMPUTING will someday be very valuable.
- 2) They think every single copy of MICROCOMPUTING already is very valuable.

Well, we're very proud of MICROCOMPUTING, and we think of it as one of the highest quality magazines around, but even we have a hard time believing the first reason.

That leaves reason number 2) which makes us ask "What makes MICROCOMPUTING so valuable?" And the answer?

Information. The kind of information that has application to today's world. The kind of information that doesn't outlive its usefulness. The kind of information our readers will want to refer to again and again—programs, applications, hardware reviews, software reviews, new product announcements, articles on language, education, business, utility, and so much more. MICROCOMPUTING is the all-encompassing monthly journal that takes you beyond the limits of your system manufacturer's documentation into an entirely new and exciting world of microcomputing. Special emphasis is placed on the Apple, Atari, Commodore, Heath, and IBM systems.

But whatever your system, you'll find the information contained in MICROCOMPUTING to be invaluable from the day you receive your first copy until the day microcomputers disappear from the face of the earth . . . and the Moon, and Mars, and Venus, and . . . well, until a long time from now.

Start your own collection of MICROCOMPUTING. Get one year's subscription for only $24.97. That's less than 7¢ a day. That's not much to invest when you consider the wealth of information you receive in return. And who knows . . . maybe reason 1) is true after all.
